GOLFINO SUPPORTS FUTURE STARS: INTRODUCING THE GOLFINO TEAM 2018

We are committed to support the young generation of female and male golfers in their quest for excellence in this wonderful and competitive sport. We enjoy being in touch with young golfers and following the progress of their careers. Below we have the pleasure of introducing some of them.

Brandon Stone is a 24 year old PGA European & Sunshine Tour professional. Born in Rustenberg, South Africa, Brandon turned pro in 2013 and has since made it into the top 100 on the Official World Golf Rankings after winning the Alfred Dunhill Championship in 2016.

At 22, he won his first European Tour Title at the BMW SA Open, then represented South Africa at the Rio Summer Olympics and this year came T35 in the US Open. With 3 professional wins under his belt already and a European PGA Tour Card secured, Brandon certainly has a huge amount of potential.

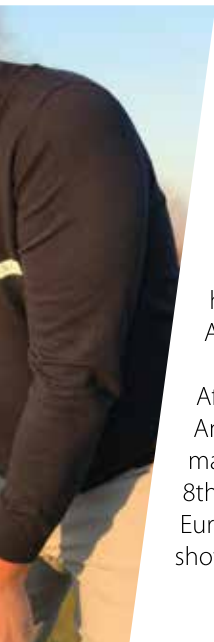

Tomás Bessa started playing golf aged 4 and turned professional in September 2017, making his debut at the Portugal Masters on the European Tour.

After a distinguished amateur career, Tomás is considered one of the most promising young golfers in Portugal and was the star of GOLFINO's 2017 winter photo shoot.

Raphael Marguery is an ambitious French golfer who plays on the Challenge Tour and has previously played on the European Tour. 2016 was his most successful year to date, capped by his win at the Arcachon Open.

At just 22 years old, Luca Cianchetti is one of golf's most promising talents. At the time of turning professional in July 2017, he was 2nd in the European Amateur Rankings.

After multiple wins as an Amateur, Luca is looking to make the step up and his 8th-place finish in the Porsche European Open in Hamburg shows that he can.
